NEW ACCOUNT AGREEMENT

Welcome new consignor! Thank you for choosing to sell your items with Bliss! Bliss Bridal reserves the right to determine the acceptability and selling price of all items, based on condition and original cost. As a rule, we will price gowns at 25 –35% off the original price for never worn with tags items and 40 –60% of the original price for gently worn items. Wedding décor items will be priced based on what Bliss determines to be a reasonable sales price.

Bliss Bridal will collect a one-time account setup fee of $10 the first time a client consigns with us. The standard consignment period is one year. Either party may terminate this agreement at any time with a thirty (30) day written notice. The consignor will be assessed a $25 storage fee for an early termination.

Consigned items may be subject to a price reduction, however the price will be reduced only with consignors consent. Bliss Bridal will retain 50% of the final selling price of all items. Payment of the remaining 50% will be issued to the consignor by check on the 15th of the month following the sale.

At the end of the one year consignment period, you may pick up your unsold items or have Bliss donate them to a local charity. You will be notified via email of remaining unsold items. Any items not picked up within 10 days of the contract termination will become the property of Bliss Bridal.

Please note that items for sale will be tried on in our store. While we will make all efforts to keep your goods in received condition, Bliss Bridal assumes no liability for loss or damage to items. Consign at your own risk. Bliss not responsible for floods, hurricanes, fires, theft, acts of nature, etc.

I attest that I am the legal owner of the goods list on my consignor record, and I accept the terms and conditions as stated above.
